

An invitation

Dear Arts Organizations and Teaching Artists,

MI Creative Potential advances access to quality arts education for all of Michigan's students. We connect independent teaching artists, arts organization, and schools to strengthen and support district arts education with arts-related performances, workshops, exhibitions, residencies, and multi-disciplinary learning opportunities through in-school and out-of-school programming.

Are You

Wondering how to connect with schools to bring your arts experience to the learning environment?

Interested in...helping students learn about arts and career opportunities?
...developing innovative programming in collaboration with schools that Engages K-12 students and arts educators?

Seeking professional learning in arts instruction and assessment?

artlook® Michigan can support you!

artlook® Michigan is an arts education map and data dashboard providing an up-to-date picture of the people, places, and programs supporting arts learning and fostering partnerships across Michigan.

The arts support students' academic, behavioral, and social success while fostering belonging and connecting K-12 learning to communities. These experiences cultivate creative citizens prepared to innovate, engage civically, and help make Michigan a place where people want to live, work, and lead.

Sincerely,

Heather Vaughan-Southard
Director, MI Creative Potential
